“ Sarah was my dearest childhood friend. Whether at school or church activities we were always together. She loved to stay at my house because I had siblings and I loved to stay at her house because of all the fun we had. I never had the chance to meet Fred or Laura but I am praying for them and asking God to comfort them. I am thankful that Sarah and I stayed in touch. Sarah, I will always love you.

“ Sarah and I grew up across Lake Jodeco from each other. Many, many times, we would dive down and get that mud at the bottom of the lake and pack it on our faces like a "mud pack". She was always so much fun!
