I love looking at these photographs with Estelle wearing everything I sold her over the more than 40 years dressing her petite body. She not only was a good client but most of all my friend for 40 wonderful years. I will never forget her because we laughed and cried together.

I worked at Henry S. Miller Realtors with Estelle for many years. She was very elegant and a very sweet lady always with a great smile on her beautiful face. I remember when her beloved husband passed away and she made a vest using his ties and would wear it always keeping him close.
