“My mother was Sarah's "Aunt Mittie", her father's sister. Not living in Georgia most of my adult life, I rarely saw Sarah, Leon and family. However, my childhood memories of extended family gatherings include moments of Sarah's exuberant and pleasant personality and love for family that have remained with me throughout the years. My thoughts, prayers, and love are with you all.

“My dear nephews, PJ, and Jamie- I am so sorry to hear of your grandmother's passing. I know how she loved you and you both loved her. And Lee, Alan, and Sarah, too. My heart and prayers are with you all. How lucky you were to have her so long. You will miss her, but remember the happy times and all she wanted to teach you. God be with you during this difficult time. I am so sorry I am unable to make the trip across tomorrow.

“ God bless all of you. We want you to know what a blessing it was to Frank and I to have been a part of her life. The last few years we have grown to love her so much and she was such a blessing to us. It gave us so much pleasure to visit and laugh with her. She made our days a little brighter and Frank cared for her so much. Thank God, she is not suffering now.

“ To the family of Ms. Sarah Johnson please accept my sincere condolence. We all face the loss of a dear loved one. At times like this I like to turn to the bible for comfort. The scripture at 2 Cor. 1:2,3 calls Jehovah the God of all comfort. May his love surround you at this time. I look forward to the fulfillment of John 5:28, 29 which tells us that a time is coming when those we have lost will hear Jesus' voice and come back to life. Also, Rev. 21:3, 4 when death will be no more. It is my wish that these scriptures provide you with comfort. For more encouraging words please visit jw.org which will also provide ways to cope with grief. Again, I am sorry for your loss.
