

Sara "Emily" Landrum

September 14, 1933 - December 13, 2024

Sara Emily Landrum, better known as Emily to her family and friends, passed away peacefully in the evening hours on Friday, December 13, 2024, at her home in Newnan, GA, surrounded by her family.

Born on September 14, 1933, in Newnan, to the late Lee Roy Chandler and Blanche Millians Chandler. Emily was a woman who radiated warmth and positivity in every aspect of her life. She was known for her unwavering faith, boundless love, and incredible ability to uplift those around her. Her cheerful spirit and kind heart were evident in everything she did, from her nurturing care of her family to the way she brightened the lives of everyone she met. For many years, Emily shared her remarkable musical talents with her community. A talented pianist, she played with dedication and grace at New Hope Baptist Church, where her music became an integral part of worship. Her piano playing not only filled the church with beautiful melodies but also provided comfort and inspiration to those in need. She found great joy in using her gift to connect with others and spread love and peace through her music. Emily was also known for her remarkable ability to maintain a positive attitude, even in difficult times. Her optimism was contagious, and she had a unique way of making people feel at ease, offering a listening ear and gentle words of encouragement. Whether it was a family gathering, a church service, or simply a quiet moment at home, her presence brought light and warmth to everyone around her.

The service celebrating Emily's life is Saturday, December 21, 2024, at New Hope Baptist Church, 3989 Corinth Road, in Newnan at 2:00 PM with Pastor Jason Settle and Rev. Rhodes Skinner officiating. Burial will follow the service in the New Hope Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 1:00 PM until service time.

Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

Along with her parents, Emily is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Daniel W. Landrum. Her children survive her, Jason Landrum, Cara "Cissy" Landrum, and Charlie Landrum and his wife Shelly. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Caitlin Landrum, Michael Landrum, Tonya Mann, Jacob Pike, great-grandchildren, Kelsey Mann, Alexzandreia Mann, Atlanta Mattingly, Isabella Landrum, Gabriella Grace Landrum, brother, Royce Chandler and his wife Pat, along with extended family who will dearly miss her.

“ My condolences to the Landrum family. Ms. Emily was a second mom to me growing up. I will always remember seeing her in church every Sunday. We would go over to the house after church and she always treated all of us like her own kids. She would make me and Jason, and Charle tomato sandwiches at Lee King Pharmacy. Ms. Emily you will always have a special place in my heart. God gained another Angel. Ms. Emily I know you are finally with the Lord. ”
