“ Our community has lost an icon. When I was in high school, I worked for Miss Sarah Emily during Christmas vacation -- she taught me so much and had such patience and tolerance as I tried on every piece of jewelry in Avery and Banta every day! My prayers and sympathy go to the family of this terrific lady.

“ Please give our condolences to the family of Sahah Emily. She was my father's Sunday School teacher at Providence Baptist Church and occaisionally mine when visiting Welcome community. She was a lovely, blessed person always with a smile. She had the most beautiful handwriting in the world and will be missed, particularly at Christmas. Regards especially to Elaine Landers and Joanne Lazenby.
