“ Kim, We have such fond memories of our years on East Broad Street. I remember when you and Scott moved into "the big white house on the corner", and soon after, along came Amanda and Emma Rose. What a wonderful place, that small town where we had great neighbors and where we watched our kids grow up. So, so sorry to hear about Scott, he was truly an all around good and nice guy. May your wonderful and loving memories of him bring you peace and comfort. You and the girls are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Kim, My memories of living next door was that I could depend on Scott to be there especilly helping to build fences or replacing hotwater tanks! He even allowed me to take your place one Sat at an Auburn football game. I think maybe you were having Amanda at that time. He was such a nice man and gentleman. I did watch the service on computer and was quite impressed with your daughters. May God be with you and comfort you and family .

“ Scott, emotional for me to hear of your passing.
I did not know, unfortunately, your bride and family, but my condolences to all.
I reflect on those formative years, as a neighborhood friend, and a flood of memories surface:
Precocious intellect
Books still to thick for me
Enlightened gentle spirit
Confidence nurtured by June, Ed And Lisa
("You done good")
Art of your galactic stickman battle scenes
(Would love to see those one more time)
Ronnie Hutchinson as quarterback and you on the line. (Ronnie if your out there)
Strength in your legs
Power in your golf swing (Jack Nicklas deliberate and focused...I preferred Arnie)
The last real contact we had was your wedding reception. That quartet: nice touch and music that still resonates.
The commentary of family and friends tells me of a life well lived.
Death not an ending but a seed planted, transformation and new beginnings. 🙌 Scott
I never knew you were were born in Alaska!

“ So sorry to hear this news. I was a dear friend of Scott's in high school and we actually went to Murray State University together and we roomed together our freshman year. The fun memories and stories we have from our high school band days and living together for a year at Murray would be tough to match. His quick wit and humor were unparalleled. He was a great guy!

“ The longer that I am here on earth by God's grace, the older I feel. Have not seen, talked to or heard from Scott in a very long time (my fault). RIP! Our sympathy and condolences to his family and friends!

“ We could all benefit from Scott's example. He had a gentle and humble way, with a twinkle in his eye—of adding a bit of humor, making feel better and lending an air of peace. And he was a doer. He supported democracy by volunteering at the Georgia polls. My experience was that he never gave up on family, friends or pets—not even Tag. I imagine him peering down amidst a fine cohort of other remarkable Southern gents, and gently spreading love and good will, while sipping the best celestial libation. We miss you, Scott! I am so glad I was your cousin and got to experience a bit of your special charm. Love, Becky

“ Scott was such a wonderful and kind man, a friend and a fellow “in-law”. We have truly enjoyed getting to know him through get togethers, tailgating and sharing in Amanda’s and Weston’s life together. We will also miss seeing and talking to him on his walks around downtown with his pal, Tag. Our heart and prayers to Kim, Emma, Amanda and Weston during this time. May God comfort and guide each of you in the days ahead. Know we are here for you.
