“ Sean was my best friend, he was basically my other half. Every so often I still check my phone waiting on him to call me so we can talk about everything that he's doing. I miss him so much. He taught me so many things ,but the most important thing I learned from him was to always stay smiling. Rest in peace brother.

“ Dear Turner Family, I was there the night of the tragedy. I was the first to hear the gun shots, call 911 and run to Sean. I was terrified but it was like my body was just telling me to react . I listen to the 911 medic for instruction , gave details about what had happen and Sean injury, etc. my heart sank when I ask his friend how old he was. I did my best to apply pressure and keep him awake. My name is Kendall Wright. I was told the mother of Sean was trying to reach me since I was there during the event. I'm trying my best to reach her. I would love to talk to her and answer any question she might have about the situation.

“ Dear Turner Family, We live in the house just near the traffic light. We were near Sean seconds after he was shot. We stayed with him and covered him with a cover for him not to be cold, until the ambulance arrived. We are so sad for you all.

“ Hi, my name is Vivian Duncan, a friend of Sean's. I came to the visitation today and got to meet all of his lovely family. I just wanted you all to know that Sean had a beautiful soul & mind & heart, which im sure you already know. He was the nicest person I've ever met. He always told me that my eyes "shot happiness out of them & could cure depression" & that my hugs could "make a broken person have all their pieces glued together again." I'll never forget that, or the last time I saw him, the things he said, or all of the things he taught me and helped me with. My deepest condolences go with everyone who knew Sean.

“ I first met Sean and his mom, Sandra at Maggie Brown Pre-K when Sean was 4 yrs old. He was always a sweet boy and I so enjoyed talking with his mom when she would bring him in. Then, when Sean got to high school, I met up with him and his mom again because I work there. I was so happy to see them and Sean would stop by and say hey to me or if he had a need I could help him with, he knew I would help him. He always said hey to me in passing in the hallways. I will always remember Sean as a kind, smart, caring boy. God received a new young angel- I will miss you Sean. Sandra, I am praying for you and your family. Love to you all. Donna Staples

“ But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. 1 Thesalonians 4:13-17....

We will all be together forever one day! Sean you were so loved by many! Till we meet again my handsome nephew! Lisa, Jim, Grace and Lucas

“ Sean was a very loving guy, and loved by so many. It's so tragic he wasn't here as long as he should have been. He always tried focusing on being happy, and saw the best in people. The ten months I dated him I learned a lot about him and even after us going our separate ways. He always knew how to cheer others up. He had one of the most beautiful smiles I've ever seen and I'll never forget it. He was such a sweet boy to me. My heart goes out to Mr's. Sandy and the family. I am continuously praying. May the lord blanket you in comfort and love. You will truly be missed and loved forever Sean.
