“ One day about 15 years ago little Allie and Anna decided they were going to raise money by having a dog wash. We brought our very patient black Lab, Daisy, over for her spa day. I remember watching Daisy sitting patiently while the girls were going to town on her. I saw Miss Hope get involved a little while later, and the next thing I knew, our Daisy was delivered home as clean as a whistle and towel dry. As a bonus, she was sporting purple toe nails and I think Miss Hope had something to do with that!

Many people will offer words of comfort in the coming days, so Debra and I will only say this: Look across the way on any night and you will always see fairy lights in the trees, for they remind us of dear Miss Hope's spirit.

Your friends,

The Spavones
