“ Sharon Snyder worked as my Secretary for at least 5 years. She was the only person allowed to write Company Checks, other than me, Wendell Ryals. Sharon was faithful, loyal, and friendly, especially with customers. She handled about 85% of all telephone calls at my business, RiverStone Financial Group.

Sharon had my permission to have the power of Attorney for me when I was single. She was a trusted and loyal friend. I met Ralph and Sharon in A Sunday School class at the Harvest Baptist Church, when Rev. Buddy Norton was the Senior Pastor.

My heart suffers as does yours, Ralph and Children. I know she is missed already! Barbara and I will continue to give thanks for her testimony, her resourcefulness, and her determination to learn new things. She did the filing, bank deposits, and some of writing checks. I trusted Sharon with a trust born from the attitude as a good Christian Woman.

Sharon was devoted to her job, whether at her home or at the office. I never regretted, not once, about hiring Ms. Sharon. She is missed, already. Prayers are offered for all concerned. By the Grace of Our God, we can live the holy life Sharon lived in front of me.

I think, I suppose it was around the 13th of January 2017, when I thought of Sharon; I sent her an email, asking was she OK. Of course, there was no response. Sadly, the 13th was also the very same day my oldest Sister, Mrs. Jerri Barton passed. Jerri and family lived in Parrot, GA. All her family misses her. I am Jerri's only surviving brother.

My other Sister, Mrs. Daryl Stanfield are the only surviving members of what was a rather large family. As one of 15 children, I knew lots about sharing.

Thanks Be To Our Heavenly Father, When We Pass That Way, We Will Meet Sharon, on That Peaceful Shore! Amen, Amen, and Amen!

“ Becki and family, I'm so sorry for your loss of your mom, grandmother, wife - and more. I know your hearts are broken and that you will miss her always. Remember that grief has stages. They don't come in any order, they change from memory to memory, and no one in the family is at the same place at the same time. Be patient with each other and always say "I love you, and I'm here". You don't get through grief, you learn to build the rest of your lives 'around' that empty spot. Be good to yourselves. Don't expect too much of yourself. Do what you can and when you can to move forward.

“ We will remember how dedicated you were to your family not just your own but your church family too. We will forever be grateful for your prayers and words of support and faith. You always prayed for your family and anyone in need of prayer... which encouraged us to remember to always pray for our family or anyone in need of prayer. You and Ralph came to our side to help watch our children when they were really still young babies when we had unexpected death in our own family up in Maine, you did not even hesitate to take them for us. We could only trust you and Ralph since you two both sure did have the experience (with children of your own and all of your grandchildren) and we knew you were Godly honest trustworthy people in our church family. You were the closest we had to spiritual parents.

We know you will be dearly missed not just by us but by many... now rest in peace in the arms of our savior. Forever in our hearts.

Forever in His Love, Mitzy & Gordon

“ In Loving Memory of my sister Sharon

Sharon,

You are an inspiration to us all. You have shown us through the life you led and the example you set, the way to everlasting life. You will be dearly missed, but we know this life is merely a blink in eternity and we will all be reunited again with you soon. We are forever grateful to you and for you. Enjoy your new spiritual life in the loving embrace of our Lord and Heavenly Father.

*I love you Sharon,

“ Dear Sister,
Thank you for being the most wonderful sister anyone could be blessed with. I have a lifetime of great memories of you that I will always hold so dear in my heart. I always looked up to you and admired you for the Christian woman, wife, mother, grandma, sister, aunt, daughter & friend that you were. You showed us all what being a Christian was by the examples that you set. You were my mentor in Christ- you taught me so much about God's word, you listened to me when I needed a friend, you prayed with me and for me and even cried with me a few times. I will miss our talks. I will miss our laughs. I will always miss you! But one thing I know is for sure- I WILL see you again- where there is no sadness or pain. But for now, I know your spirit will live on in each of us that was fortunate enough to know you. We are all SO blessed to have had you in our lives!!
Love, Carol

“ Mom, You where the best mother a son could ask for. You instilled in me good life values, to always work hard and to respect orhers. You be be deeply missed. I will always be looking at the sky to say hello. You always loved a good sun shiney day. Heaven received a great Mother and I know it will be even cleaner now that you are there.
Love you very much Mom!!!
