“ Dear Family, I knew your mom from the Avery Park Chevron. I would stop in there every morning to get something to drink to carry to work with me. We had many great conversations and it was evident that she loved you dearly, especially Benjamin. I will miss her. Judy Anderson

“Sheila, I am at a loss for words. I have always treasured you as a person, and forever will. You were so loving and kind to Adam and myself. I will always remember you, as one with a huge heart and a giving nature. You showed me how to keep a good relationship with my son, like you have with Dwayne. And for that, I will be forever grateful. So, I pray that you are resting in the arms of Jesus, as you so deserve. Love, Lori
