“ Shirlene will be missed. We were double cousins and dressed alike when we were little and kept in touch most of our life. She and Marsha took the place of sister's that I never had. Her mom, Aunt June, was a favorite of mine. My children, Rhonda and Bryan, enjoyed playing games with Stephie and Troy. Gail was a baby so she wouldn't remember. I have an adorable picture of the kids all lined up by the statue of Mary in their great grandparents yard. Time goes by far too quickly. I'm looking forward to seeing all of them again one day.
