“ Memories, memories. After more than 50 years of friendship, I have to many to tell. Phone calls, going to football games, trips to K Mart, digging up plants all over the county from country roads. We raised our last two son's together. Nick and Matthew. I have missed her so ever since she moved and the phone calls got farther and farther apart. I loved her and I prayed for her. My heart is broken. Love to all her family. Jane

“ I grew up next door to this family. Michael was like a 2nd mom to me. She or Gene could call me right now from heaven and I would know who it was, right away. Babysitting, Nick and Tammy disappearing, forts and sneaking out, football in the backyard, ping pong tournaments-all etched in my mind like it was yesterday. Michael was fierce-you knew it if she didn't like you. I was happy to be somebody she did like. When I talked to her, 40 years gone by, it was just the same. I will hold you dear in my memory and my heart. All of you.
