“ We remember Stella fondly. She worked many years with Pat at the Hobrau in Allentown. Stella was Pat's Maid of Honor at our wedding in 1990. She was a precious friend to both of us. We are saddened by her passing and our prayers are with her family. We have been blessed by her friendship and company over the years. Ken & Pat Lawrence

“ To the family of Stella Sandor; It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one again can be most difficult to bear. The Bible however, holds out a wonderful hope. The scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with Stella in the near future right here on earth under peaceful conditions. At that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Jesus said in John 5:21,28,29 "Just as the father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do no marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memoria tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out." Jesus promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prosepct of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions (John 3:16, 17:3, Psalm 37:29). Until that day arries remember God who is the "hearer of prayer" can equip you with the "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next (2 Corinthians 4:7, Psalm 65:2). Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time.

“ To the Sandor and Siderias families we offer our deepest condolences. I knew Stella when I was a young girl living in Fountain Hill, Pa., I was a friend of her younger sister Debbie. She was a beautiful girl back then and I'm sure over the years she remained that way. We are sorry for your loss and we will remember her in our prayers. Sincerely, Steven and Mary Lea [Cunningham] Stastny

“ We met Stella at the Newnan Health & Rehabilitation Center in November when my mother moved there. We talked to Stella on a regular basis during our visits at meal time. She was a very nice lady and we had many pleasant conversations. She was very kind and we saw her helping other residents who were unable to take care of themselves. She had a good sense of humor and we had many laughs together. She loved her family, especially her grandchildren, and talked about them often. We feel fortunate to have met Stella. She will truly be missed. May her family always have fond memories of her. Sincerely, Fred & Loretta Smith
