

Stephen Penland Anderson

July 24, 1956 - August 4, 2021

Stephen P. Anderson, 65, of Palmetto passed away Wednesday, August 4, 2021 at Piedmont Newnan Hospital. Steve was born July 24, 1956 in Winder, GA. He was preceded in death by parents, William James Anderson & Mary Jo Penland Anderson Davis and siblings, Tony Anderson and Carmen Stamps.

Steve grew up on Jekyll Island where his love of the water and outdoors began. He enjoyed being outdoors boating, fishing, and target practice. He was a proud veteran of the US Air Force where he was attached to the Strategic Air Command. Steve was devoted to his church, First United Methodist Church of Palmetto where he was a member for 34 years. Steve retired from the Krystal Company as a maintenance supervisor after 30 years. The family will greet friends Saturday, August 7, 2021 beginning at 1:00 pm at First United Methodist Church of Palmetto. The memorial service will follow at 2:00 pm at the church with Rev. Ron Capes officiating. Interment will follow at Floral Hills Cemetery in Palmetto. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Palmetto First United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 828, Palmetto, GA 30268.

“ Steve and I grew up together spending lots of summers together. I am Roxanne his cousin from my mom being his mom's sister We loved to watch westerns on tv and go swimming. Later, after the service he came home to my parents as more job opportunities. That's when he met Kay. We all knew she was his soul mate. Steve was always funny and put together neither of us had a lick of sense! We got lost driving in a k mart parking lot that was under construction in mapleton GA. Once. He hot us home. He loved to play checkers with Pop our maternal grandfather. Due to my dad as I take care of him I'm unable to attend Our deepest sympathy and regrets he are with everyone. Hes in glory now and with all his family and ours that will be waiting for a homecoming. Love you Kay &family. Roxanne Stacey
