

Stephen A. Boswell

July 10, 1982 - December 3, 2024

Stephen Anthony Boswell passed away peacefully on Tuesday, December 3, 2024, at the age of 42 ending his long battle with cancer.

Stephen was born on July 10, 1982, in Newnan, GA to Debbie and Anthony Boswell. He was a graduate of Newnan High School and "Tha Boz" loved his time with the Marching Cats most of all.

He was the loving husband and best friend of Beth for 22 years of adventure and unending laughter. Whether it was a local restaurant or wandering the far side of the globe he managed his wild woman with humor and patience and loved the crazy situations Beth often got them into. He was the steady and reasonable to her impulsive and they were always the perfect balance.

They had 4 incredible children: Aidan, Kellan, Rory, and Cashel Boswell. He was an amazing father finding great joy in being present for any and everything they loved. He encouraged their passions for art, theater, football, tennis, and even Minecraft.

Stephen was an incredible friend. Anyone lucky enough to know him experienced his great loyalty and love and also his deep humor and wit. Anyone who spent time with him spent it in laughter. He loved nothing more than hanging out with people he loved and cheering for the Dawgs.

Throughout his life, he embraced every challenge with strength even to the end. He leaves behind a legacy of faith, love, and cherished memories that will forever live in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

The memorial service celebrating Stephen's life is Sunday, December 8, 2024, at 4:00 PM in the chapel of Community Christian Church, 1717 GA 154, in Newnan, with Pastor Jason Collins officiating. Stephen requested that you all wear your college football finest or he will haunt you.

Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

Along with his parents, wife, and children, Stephen leaves behind his brother, Matthew Boswell, and his wife, Tiffany, nephew, Jensen Boswell, and a long list of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will dearly miss him.
