“ To the Kurhansky Family , My name is Billy Durler i'm your Dads 1st cousin. My Mom and your Grand Father are brother and sister. So The memory I have of your Father have always been good ones. Back in the late 70's early 80's we use to visit from time to time and your Dad was the 1st one to put me on a dirt bike (it was his Suzuki RM 100 that he raced with) and once in awhile we would go with them to watch your dad and your uncle terry race dirt bikes around the local tracks. They did very well too. God do I miss those days ! Your Dad was very respectful towards my mom (Aunt Valeria) He was a true Gentleman. I will miss him immensely. - Billy
