“ I have known Steve for over 50 years. What a great guy! After high school we lost contact as people do until our paths crossed accidentally. I became an elementary school principal and designed a school patrol trip to Florida one year. Lo and behold Steve showed up with his Greyhound to drive us. It was an outstanding trip. Every year thereafter we would request him.....in large part because he could tolerate our loud and excited kids.....but mostly because we trusted him to get us there and back safely. He always did. I never knew of his heroism during the VietNam war although it doesn't surprise me. He was one of those quiet types that could separate what was real from what was bovine excrement. I can envision him doing his duty and having his squad's backs. This obit picture of him truly reflects his wry smile. Prayers for his family.

“ Even as a young child, I admired how much Steve loved his wife and kids. He was always holding her hand or had his arm around his kids. I did not know he was in the Vietnam war and so impressed with his medals. He will be greatly missed!
