Steven M. Quick

July 21, 1949-May 24, 2023

Steven Quick was a graduate of Marietta High School where he played football. He was also a graduate of the University of West Georgia. He married Lynda Dell Quick on June 6, 1970 (D-Day anniversary). He was a little league coach, special needs teacher, and a friend to many as well as a volunteer for special needs children and the Pink Posse. He was A TRUE MAN.

A private family service has been held. Rather than flowers, contributions may be made to special needs children or to the Pink Posse at the Senoia Synovus branch.

Condolences may be expressed online at www.mckoon.com

Survivors include his wife of 53 years, Lynda Dell Quick; son, Ben Quick; and granddaughter, Sydney Quick.

“ I got to know this wonderful gentleman when he was a substitute teacher at various schools I worked at throughout Coweta County, we also worked many Special Olympics events in Coweta County and you could also be sure that he and his wife would be at the bowling tournaments.
My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this time.
