

Susan Royce Avery Cook

December 5, 1945 - December 12, 2015

Royce Avery Cook gently left her earthly life behind on the morning of Saturday, December 12th after developing complications as the result of a stroke that occurred on Thursday evening. Susan Royce Avery was born December 5, 1945 in Newnan, Georgia to the late John Welch Avery, Sr. and Sudie Fincher Avery. She would soon come to be known to family and friends as "Sissy". Royce was an enthusiastic student in the Newnan Public Schools and was an outstanding student and athlete. She later attended West Georgia College and her degree in education would prepare her for her career in early childhood education. Royce personified the role of a loving wife and mother. She was diligent in her care for her parents in their later years. All of her nieces and nephews were beneficiaries of her compassionate nature. They were loved as if they were her own and the bond was mutual. Her kindness and giving nature attracted a great number of friends and she truly loved entertaining them. Dinner at her home would surely feature one's favorite dish and a few extra thrown in for good measure. When she was not playing bridge or golfing, she could be found enjoying her favorite country music or jumping into the action of the Georgia Bulldogs or The Atlanta Braves. She has left a legacy of love that will forever be carried in the hearts of her family and friends. Royce is survived by her husband Rick, her daughter Jenni, her brother John Welch Avery, Jr. and his wife Carolyn. Her extended family includes her sisters-in-law Sylvia Harris, Sherry McCurry and her husband Mac. She was the devoted aunt to Leslie Avery, Whitney Ray, Holly Garland

(and Tim), Melissa Hayes (and Michael), Marsha Couch, Jay Avery (and Heather), Keith Harris and all the great nieces and nephews. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street in Newnan where the family will receive friends on Tuesday evening December 15th between 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM and on Wednesday between 10:00 AM and 11:00 AM. She will be lovingly remembered in a service in the McKoon Funeral Home chapel at 11:00 AM. Officiating will be Reverend Hugh Kirby of New Hope Baptist Church of Fayetteville. Interment will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com. McKoon Funeral Home 770-253-4580.

“ There are so many beautiful memories of Royce in our hearts....she was so thoughtful, sweet, hospitable, generous, warm and a true friend. We will never forget the fun 'after golf' parties that she and Rick had for our little golf group; the Christmas parties, birthday get togethers. She and Mary Reinen had a beautiful bridal shower for our daughter Jordan and helped in sweet ways with our son's (Casey) wedding. To name just a few of the memories... It was such an honor and priviledge to know her and we will never forget her...sleep well, Royce and we will see you in God's forever kingdom. We love you!

“ We love you Royce.....

You will always be in my heart and smile everyday to keep forever. I loved making good memories with you, eating breakfast with you- eggs, bacon, grits and bread dipped in butter, swinging on the swing with you, playing cards or with the doll houses & cars, I always just loved being with you. Love, Reagan

Royce you were the most kind and sweet neighbor to us we were so lucky to be just next door to you, Rick and Jenni. Because you gave us so much love and joy, lots of joy and love from all of us to you always.
