“ I am so sorry for your loss. May these words found in the Bible at Revelation 21:4 bring you hope and comfort at this difficult time. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I want to offer my condolences to the Musick family. It is a painful thing to loose a love one in death, regardless of how long they have lived, and it pains our Creator, too. He has promised to bring back to life our love one at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpse will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust!...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life" I hope these words give you comfort.

“ Dear Linda, I am so sorry to hear of Ted's passing. He and I were classmates of NHS class of '59. I have not seen Ted in several years, but I have fond memories of him. I pray a blessing on you and your sons as you go through the grieving process. I understand that Ted had been sick for some time. I know this has been difficult on you all. Love and God's blessings, Jane Hatchett Wilson

“ Dear Linda: I am so sorry to hear about Ted. We went to school together, and I had not seen him for a long time, and when we built our house in 2005, he cleaned up around it. Just know that he is in a better place now with no more suffering. My thoughts and prayers go to you and his family, and may God comfort you at this time. Mary Elizabeth (OBrien) Hughie
