“ For the 8 years I worked at Newnan Country Club I could count on seeing Mr. Lunsford at least 4 days a week (unless of course he was on a fishing trip!). I could practically set my watch based on when he walked in the door. I loved to hear him laugh and carry-on with his friends in the Legends group. At the start of each winter we would let Mr. Lunsford take a golf cart home to his garage for the night, and he would fasten on his cart cover. (He was determined to play on even the coldest days.) The cover didn't fit the cart perfectly so he would apply tape and bungee cords, and stuff towels into any hole that might let in cold air. It was an interesting looking contraption, but his "Cadillac" served him and his playing partner well! My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.
