“ Ray was more than my uncle and more than a business partner to me. He was also my close and dear life long friend. There is no one that I shared more experiences in common with than Ray. Our lives were connected by family, business, and many personal good times as well as occasional sad times. All of us who mourn Ray's passing are blessed to have had his good-natured, positive spirit as an important influence in our lives. He will be dearly missed. May he rest in peace and be remembered eternally with love.

“ Ray was my favorite uncle. I appreciated his sense of humor and how he made me laugh. I have wonderful memories of spending summers at his home along with many Thanksgivings and Christmases. It was always a joy to be around him and he influenced me to love college sports.
