Mr. Thomas Walling Hanford, 79, of Senoia, GA., formerly of Sutton, Ma passed away Monday, February 17th, 2020 at Piedmont Fayetteville Hospital. Tom was born April 26th, 1940 in Pittsfield , MA. to the late Thomas B. Hanford and Harriet Card.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Lorraine Leahy and stepmother Iva Hanford.

“ To all those connected to Tom, especially to his wife, his children, grandchildren, extended family and friends my deepest sympathies and condolences to you. I am holding Tom in light and honoring his earth-side travels. I have fond memories of Tom as being so very kind, warm and loving. Always receptive and easily approachable. Always with a big smile and a warm hello. May he sit now at the right hand of the Father...in glory, grace, and peace.

“ To Diane and Family - We are sad to learn that Tom has passed. We enjoyed Tom and his family as our neighbors in Sutton, MA. Tom had a great sense of humor and a reputation for making amazing fireworks displays on the Fourth of July. No matter who lives there, that house is always referred to as the “Hanford house”. Tom and Diane raised four children who are now adults they can be proud of. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. God bless you all.
