In the late 80's, Tom turned his competitive focus toward Competitive Carriage Driving, becoming an active participant as well as leader in the Driving community. His passion for the sport culminated with him being a member of the 1998 Silver Medal winning USET Single Horse Carriage Driving team in Ebbs, Austria with Georgia bred Morgan gelding, Gus, aka Who's Zooming Who. Additionally, he was the top finishing American out of 60 competitors. After retiring from competition, he continued as an active member in the Driving community as a judge, trainer and committee member for several years until ill health forced him to a less active life.

“ I really enjoyed flying with Tom in the early ' 70's. He introduced me to Morgan horses at a horse show in Maine on a layover. He was a gentleman and a good pilot. He will be missed.

“ It was my good fortune to fly with Tom early in my career with Delta in the early '70s.. He was a fine gentleman and professional-one of the "good guys". May your grief be overcome by the good memories you have shared with him. Bless you, John
