“ I too have a few of my fondest memories of my childhood with Mr. Hughie. As a young child I can remember the man we called "Sug" being as sweet as sugar. He and "Whup" would stop and visit my grandparents, Mr. Frank Hughie & Mrs. Betty Hughie, often. Granddaddy & Sug were always practical joking each other and making all of us laugh. Sug had the kindest spirit about him. I remember visiting them when they lived in Panama City, Florida. Frank & Sug would go fishing together and then we would all gather back at their house to have dinner and play with "the kids" (Sug & Whup always referred to their cats as their kids). I would be entertained for hours with chronicles of their past. He could mesmerize me, as a child, with all his stories and jokes. He was a wonderful man, a much loved man, a strong Hughie man, a war hero and so much more to so many. Those memories will live in my heart forever. My love and condolences to all those that loved him as well. If a snowflake fell here everytime I thought of Sug and my Granddaddy, Florida would be covered in snow all year. With deepest sympathy, loving thoughts and prayers, Lacy L. Gray (Granddaughter of Frank Hughie (brother to Thomas Edwin Hughie))

“ I have pleasant memories of my childhood summer visits to my grandparents, your parents, and the fun we had. I remember your red 1940 Chevy convertible and I was determined that when I grew up, I too would have a red convertible, the bicycle rides on the handle bar to Raymond to buy candy, the wagons you built and pull us kids around the yard. These were the most pleasant times of my childhood. You were a good and kind individual. I grieve your passing. God Bless.
