“ Met Tom at a golf tournament where he saw me playing so bad he walked with me the last 3 holes giving me lessons in the rain:-) Later he was a regular with me at the local VFW bar and had a great time reminiscing.
Miss him already. :-( “ Tom, his father, Floyd and mother Phyllis, and their family were a very big part of my life in the early sixties. My life was greatly changed for the positive because of them. Tom was my very best new friend after moving to a new town in 1961. No young boy like myself could have been more fortunate. Til this day and throughout my life we remained in touch. God bless you my friend.
