

Timothy L. Eidson

May 31, 1960 - August 14, 2019

II Corinthians 4:5 states this truth, "For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake." For Timothy Lee Eidson, this would come to be a life defining truth. Tim was born May 31, 1960 in Franklin, Georgia at the hospital headed by his uncle, Dr. Doyle Caswell. He was the fifth child born to the late Travis Henry and Fannie Maude Caswell Eidson. Tim's father was a stalwart member of the community built around the Arncos textile mill. These villages typically had their own church and Rev. Travis worked full time in the mill and also served as the pastor of the church. Tim often remarked that having a very prominent figure for a father could be good and bad, especially if someone in the community caught you up to something no good. This concept of the close knit community would come to mean more and more to Tim as he grew older and ventured into a world that could turn very cold and cruel at times. Tim chose the field of law for a career path. At the time of his death, he was Assistant District Attorney in the Pataula Judicial Circuit in Cuthbert, Georgia. Tim gave his all to whatever task he had, and his career as a prosecutor was no different. He gained a reputation that had him nicknamed "10 year Tim" and "Maximum Tim". Then one day, he found himself in a circumstance that put him on the wrong side of the law, through no fault of his own, and he would subsequently be exonerated. It was during that time Tim was a member of a spiritual group that helped people deal with issues of addiction. At one of those meetings, he met a guy named Kevin, a biker, who he instantly disliked. This was the kind of guy that Maximum Tim would turn into a headline. Because of the problems Tim had with the legal system, he was not working, and Kevin called him one day and asked Tim to take him to Walmart. Tim was startled and agreed, for what reason, he could not explain. Kevin was a guy that wore his pants down low and Tim hoped nobody would see them together. The irony of this is that Tim and Kevin became constant friends and spent a lot of that summer together. Tim, in retrospect, said that God placed Kevin in his life for a very definite purpose. Fast forward and Tim is due for his day in court and Kevin is diagnosed with cancer. He dies just a few weeks after Tim is cleared of his issues and Tim provides the eulogy for this former gangster. God taught Tim a great lesson in love that summer and he used Kevin for that purpose. Tim spent the rest of his life, literally, loving and supporting other people who could not be their own advocate. He took the message of recovery from addiction into the prisons and he always thought it was a gift that he could give those incarcerated, even though he might have been the one who helped put them there. As Tim's illness progressed, his constant prayer to God was to be used by God until he had nothing left to give, and God certainly did that. Tim was big on social media, but only because he knew that he had some insight to share that others might find helpful and there will never be a way of knowing how many people he touched, but he knew that God led him to share and that was all that mattered. It was out of this same desire to help others, that he shared his struggle with cancer. And as Tim, would always say at the end of his day, "Good night with love". Well done, God's good and faithful servant. Tim is survived by his children Skylar White and her husband Ryan and his son, Banks Eidson. Tim always felt blessed by his supportive family. He was predeceased by his parents and his brother Dr. Caswell Eidson. His siblings are Elizabeth Eidson Hodgson and her husband Richard, H. Marcus Eidson, and Dr. Rodger Eidson. There is a large extended family of nieces, nephews and cousins. Tim's life of love and service will be honored in a gathering on Saturday, August 17, 2019, with friends visiting beginning at 12:30 PM. A memorial service will follow at 2:00 PM in the Chapel at McKoon. In lieu of flowers, those who desire, may remember Tim's life by a contribution in his name to any charity related to cancer care or research. “ Last night I had a dream of me and Tim in the old days. That's when I realized we haven't communicated on FB for quite some time. I'm so sad to hear of his passing and my most sincere condolences to his family.

Tim and I spent a lot of time doing fun and sometimes crazy things when I was a graduate student at UGA (1984-1985). Our friendship goes much further back than graduate school. I met Tim on a high school 4H exchange in 1976. I loved spending time with him and his family, who adopted me as a long lost son while I lived so many miles from my own family in Minnesota. So, it is with a heavy heart that I hear of his passing. RIP in God's hands my old and dear friend.

“ One of the finest, honest and intelligent persons I have known. He handled hundreds, no, thousands, of cases in front of me and never withheld anything. Tim, I know you are in Heaven and pray that I will see you soon.

“ I just saw where Timbo went home 🥹🥹🥹🥹 I think our friend Robin C. says it best..... words get in the way . I am so blessed to have crossed Tim's path when I was in Bainbridge, GA and in Dothan, AL. Tim was larger than life. My condolences to his children, family, and so so many friends. When I moved back to Birmingham a few years back, I always loved reading his “goodnight with love “ stories. Tim was so talented and had a heart so full of love to share I can't believe he's gone. Though we were not very close, we talked many times about deep spiritual matters and laughed a lot too. I can only imagine how his presence is missed amongst his people. And the precious souls he touched through prison ministries. I know he touched my life. I am a better person today because I was able to call Tim my friend. So many lives , how many we will never know this side of heaven, but I know it was many. Prayers for his children again. May the God of all comfort and peace be with you 🌻🌻🌻🌻🌟🌟🌟🌟 Tim really did live to help others who couldn't help themselves. See ya on the other side buddy 🙏🙏

“ To the Eidson family Jenny(Wilson) and Joe Pryor pray for healing and peace that only God can give. We are both so very honored to have known such a good and Godly man, this world is a better place for having Tim in it and today Tim is rejoicing with his Heavenly Father and being honored for being a good and faithful servant. May God and His peace be with you all.

“ To Tim's family your father, son, uncle, friend was a very wise man. I remember meeting him 5 years ago in Dothan at a meeting thing. Anyway I remember sharing with everyone there about my girls, and living situation afterwards Tim came up to me and said something to the effect of "Sam complaining about it is not going to change it...get a sponsor and do the steps and do what the court tells you it will be for you're benefit and good" I was so mad I left but the next week I was back. Then eventually it got easier. I did get my girls back and my legal stuff done. He was a very wise friend.

Tim was such an important part of my life on facebook. I looked forward to every post he made. GOOD NIGHT WITH LOVE I told him was such a comforting close to every post. I grew up in the same community, Arnco, as Tim but I was older than Tim but we could always share all the memories of that life so long ago. I prayed for his healing almost every day. I will miss him so...

“ Tim Eidson, you were one of a kind on this Earth. I can see you now dancing with your loved ones that went to Heaven before you. Skylar and Banks, please always remember...your Dad is always with you...he is only a thought away at all times...he will be your beautiful Guardian Angel! I worked with Tim in the Cook County GA District Attorney's Office as an Administrative Assistant. We had some very special and hilarious moments together. Thanks, Tim, for always making me smile! And....for teaching me so much about the importance of "leaving no stone unturned" while preparing criminal cases for trial. Please help God keep an eye out for all of us here...we love you and we will miss you until we meet again!
Sincerely, Connie Murphy

*Tim, was always uplifting his friends with his facebook post and other multimedia outlets. I knew his parents when they use to come into the Winn Dixie Store in the 70's and early 80's to shop. He fought a good fight, kept the faith during his illness and his reward through all this is a Glorified Body in Heaven with his mom and dad and Jesus! Does it get any better than that?
