“ I wonder how many times I have thought of you in the last three years. I wonder how many tears I have cried and how many laughs I have also had those three years thinking of you. I can tell you it seems to be more laughs though. Tim how I miss sitting around on the weekends talking so much BS with you lol. Three years and my heart hasn't healed a bit. I love you my brother.

“ To the Kiel Family: Tim was a wonderful young man with a big heart. He was always helping someone in need. It was easy to love him because he gave love so easily. I could not have loved him more if he were my own son. He gave of himself constantly. He adored his children. Danny and Jessica if we can do anything at all for you; we are here for you both !! Be proud of the Man he became and the Father he was . May God Bless you all in this time of sorrow !!

“ Dear Family, I have no words to express my grief. My heart is breaking over and over again. Tim was my oldest and dearest friend. We were children together, and I can hardly remember life before we were friends. Always the first to help others and the last to ask he had a heart of gold. He was the best friend a person could have. My life will never be the same without him. The shock and pain are unbearable worsened by the fact that I cannot be there to offer my comfort and support to all of you. I will keep all of you in my prayers. Goodbye old friend, best friend, brother. We will meet again.
