“ I had the very good fortune of meeting TJ through one of his friendly jokes he played. Him and some friends sent me a comic book they had determined was the worst ever written. So they decided to mail it to me, with the requirement I had to read it completely and then provide my opinion of the experience. Leave it to TJ to then ask that I select another 'victim' so they could experience the same pleasure. I share that because there are so many funny stories of how TJ used his humor to bright everyone's day. And that is what I will always remember is that funny, friendly person that every time made you look forward to the next conversation. He was truly special in so many ways. I will miss you, TJ. But I am glad we came to know one another.

“ We are so very saddened by your loss. T.J. was one of the nicest young men we have known and it was truly an honor to have called him friend. There will be an absence in our life and ValuTeacher family with him not there, but we will always hold his memory in our hearts.

“ TJ and Allison were both students in my photography classes. TJ was endlessly creative and curious. If I ever did any "teaching" with him it was to reign him in to focus on one of his many good ideas. I'm shocked and saddened to hear about the loss of such a good fellow human being.

“ Elaine, Many thoughts and prayers to you and the family -- so sorry for your loss. Know that you will always have your memories of T.J. -- his smile, his laughter, and his kindness to all that he encountered in life. Love from the family: Diane Jones, Mary Rutledge, Peggy Collis, and Dorothy Ward
A Trip To Heaven
I took a trip to heaven
But only in my mind I wanted to know what it's like
To leave all you love behind. So I closed my eyes, and started to see
Just how beautiful heaven can be. I could see the pearly gates of white and behind them was the most radiant light. I saw an angel as she was passing by so incredibly beautiful that a tear fell from my eye. Everyone looked perfect and with the angels they did sing
There are no earthly words to describe the beauty of their wings. As I sat on a bench in the most incredible garden I asked God for all of my sins to be pardoned
I took one last look at all of the beauty around
And when I opened my eyes, it was peace that I found. Poem By: Annmarie Campbell Source: FamilyFriendPoems.com

“ TJ was a true professional. Anytime I called the ValuTeacher home office and spoke to TJ, he always answered with a laugh in his voice. He would usually say " What did you do wrong this time?" He will be greatly missed. My prayers and thoughts are with his family today. May God hold you in his arms.

“ T.J. was one of those people that always made you feel better about yourself just by being around him. He was always funny, thoughtful, caring, and ultimately more concerned with you than with himself. I have so many great memories of conversations with T.J. that will stay with me forever. In a world where so much is forgettable and mediocre, T.J. was singular, special, and truly one of a kind. He'll never be forgotten. My deepest condolences to his family. Know that T.J. leaves behind an indelible impact on everyone he met.
