“ Mom, I miss your intoxicating smile, your overwhelming generosity, and most of all the love that you gave me! You refused to call me your Daughter Inlaw and I refused to call you my Mother Inlaw because you were, are and always will be my Mom! I know that it won't be long until we see each other again and I have NO DOUBT that you will be at the gate waiting on me...such a joyous moment that will be and I can just hear you saying..."That's my Daughter...everyone says that she looks like me." Because that's what you always told everyone and what a compliment it was! Always made me feel proud and hold my head up just a little bit higher! So lost without you...🥹❤️💋❤️
