

Tommy Kyle Inman, Jr.

October 27, 1956 - March 27, 2023

Mr. Tommy Kyle Inman, Jr. 66, of Stockbridge, GA is free from pain and suffering forevermore! As of March 27, 2023 Tommy is with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He was born October 27, 1956 in Maryville, TN to Mr. Tommy Kyle Inman Sr. (deceased) and Katie Parrott Inman Haley.

Tommy grew up in Tennessee, Florida, and Georgia. He was a hard working man and provided well for his family. Tommy loved being on his ski boat as much as riding on his motorcycle with family and friends. Fishing was another favorite hobby. He also had a passion for gun collecting. He would just rather sit with family and friends more than anything.

A Celebration of Life will be April 15, 2023 11-1:30 at Stockbridge First Baptist 4566 N. Henry Blvd., Stockbridge, GA.

“ I don't know where to Begin. Me and Tommy Became Brothers at the young age of 15. I ran away from home and moved in with Tommy and his parents and Brothers and sisters. His Dad and Mom took me right in. No problem I'm still amazed at their kindness today. I loved them Both . Even though his Dad wouldn't put up with no shit. Me and Tommy had many adventures together. From fast women to fast cars. We always had a Blast. From Grandfunk concerts to Smoking our share of Weed. We had no care in the world then. Ill never forget one time we went up to Tennessee to visit his Cousins. And we went to a fair.. And Hooked up with some girls and we left the fair to go get High. It started to rain and we were Besides a Real tall Water Tower Being Built. We looked up and there was a hole in the Bottom of the tank. So to. get out of the rain we got the Bright idea to climb Up into the tank. It must of Been a 300 ft to the top. !!!!! But we did it and then a lighting storm started and the weather got Real Bad. Here we are inside a metal Water Tower in a lighting storm! High as a kite literally and figuratively. !!! We finally said we Better climb Down and get the Hell out of there. God was watching over us that Day for sure.. Just like He watched over us for Many more years. We Both have Been Blessed with Wonderful family's and FREINDS. Thank You Jesus for Giving Tommy To Be my Brother.... I'm going to Truly Miss My Brother and Best freind And All the Great Memories and Days sitting on his Dock Drinking cold ones and Reminiscing About All the Good times we Had together.. I Love you Brother.. And God Willing We will See each other again soon in Heaven.... Free Bird RIP

“ I also knew Tommy in high school. I was partners in crime with him, Cheryl Lester and Blair Davis. Fun times! I pray God will grant his family and friends strength, peace and comfort. Rest now, Tommy.

“ My memories go back to days of high school. Tommy and I had crushes on each other and managed to have a few good times laughing and skipping church (Yes - I got caught... we were only in 8th grade) He was always nice to me and we stayed friends in High School. I know he had many good friends in his lifetime and I am glad I got to know him for some of it. I know you will be missed by all your friends and family. May you rest in peace Tommy - You'll always have a special place in my heart.

“ Here's a paragraph from the letter I wrote for Tommy the day before he passed...in fact it was literally hours before...on 3/26/2023 @ 5:12 pm.

"Remember that time we were drifting along Cocoa Beach in that old TomKat you sold me? Catching the sunshine and throwing back the suds. When all of a sudden, a huge wave broke over the stern and dumped about a hundred gallons of water in the boat! We had drifted too close to the beach! If it wasn't for your quick thinking and knowhow, we would have sunk for sure.

I remember it well. You jumped up and said, "Rog, fire up the engine and drive full speed ahead away from the beach." So, I cranked it up, opened the throttle and turned the wheel while you reached down in the bilge and pulled the drain plug. It was amazing!!! All of the water started to drain right out the drain hole. You saved our asses that day. It's a story and a lesson I'll never forget."

I must say that being in your company was never a dull moment. May the good Lord rest your soul and may we meet again on the other shore.

Sincerely...your old friend Robert MacMurray...aka "Rockin' Rog"

“ One of my favorite memories we made right before we got married. Tommy took me to Cochran's Mill and he showed me how to swing from the vines like Tarzan. Good times!!!
