

Tony F. Thompson

June 29, 1956 - April 12, 2024

It becomes our sad duty as a family to chronicle the death of our beloved, Tony Fred Thompson, 67 years old, a longtime resident of Franklin, GA who passed with Jesus in his heart on Friday, April 12, 2024, 2:10 p.m. at WellStar West Georgia Hospice in Lagrange, GA. He was surrounded by his loving family. He was born on June 29, 1956, in Atlanta, Georgia to Loretta Ellie Lockridge and the late Charlie Fred Thompson.

Tony grew up in Red Oak near College Park, Georgia and enjoyed playing county baseball and football often with his father or uncles as coaches. He was a graduate of Lakeshore High School. Tony followed his father in the building trades and trained as a Journeyman Plumber.

He was a 44-year member of the Plumbers, Pipefitters, and HVACR Technicians Local Union 72 in Atlanta, GA working on the ever-changing Atlanta skyline. An avid sportsman, Tony enjoyed fishing, hunting whitetail bucks, rock and roll music, and SEC football.

In honor of Tony's memory, the family will be holding a Celebration of Life ceremony later in the Smoky Mountains. Rather than flowers, the family requests memorial contributions to be donated to WellStar West Georgia Hospice.

“ I will never forget the moments I was able to spend with Pa. The endless bubble gum all the way to the times he would teach me to ride the four wheeler. I truly believe I got my love for the adrenaline rush through him. Until we meet again Pa. I love You.
