“ I was hired at Delta as a pilot on the same day as Troy. There were only ten people in our new hire class so we all got to know each other well. I was the youngest in the class and I clearly remember Troy being nice to me. I had kept up on Troys challenges over the years with a mutual friend named Elton. We will miss Troy indeed.

“ Troy and I met 30 years ago at Laughlin Air Force Base in Del Rio, Texas. We worked closely together, teaching student pilots to fly Air Force's latest trainer jet. We worked 12 hour days Monday through Friday and went cross country together numerous times. I had the privilege of knowing Leah, Davis, Georgia. I also got to meet Troy's older brother, and fly to his hometown in North Carolina. Once we left the service, we both raised our families in Atlanta, Georgia. We got together frequently to play golf and catch up with each other and our beautiful families. Troy is one of the best pilots I have ever flown with. He was known for being an excellent flight, instructor and leader. He will be missed by so many of us who love him.
