“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Payne family and also share a comforting promise from the Bible. At Revelation 21:3-4 where Jehovah God will very soon wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ David, Chris, Jennifer & all family members of Mr. Daulton Payne, I want you all to know how incredibly proud I am to call each of you "Family", seems that one of the oldest family friendships of Coweta County is that of the Hill/Payne family, and I speak for my entire family when I say the ties are cherished. David, you being there for my Dad, when we lost George Sr. in January, meant more to me than you will ever know. Chris & Jennifer I love you, my prayers are with you all during this time.

“ David, I remember how pleasant both your Dad and Mom were. Both were really nice to me when as a kid I use to spend the night with you all at your house. I'm extremely saddened to hear of your Dad's passing. I will miss him and I know you will.
