

Vicki Ellen Lee

July 5, 1964 - August 10, 2009

Ms. Vicki Ellen Lee of Newnan, Georgia, passed away Monday, August 10, 2009, in the care of Healthfield Hospice.

Ms. Lee was born in Fulton County on July 5, 1964. She graduated from Lithia Springs High School in Douglas County and was known for her good cooking in various local eating establishments, most recently Redneck Gourmet in Newnan. Since her original diagnosis of cancer in 2006, she devoted much of her time and energy to the annual Relay for Life event.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Iverson and Ruby Lee. She is survived by her son, Nicholas Clay Lee of Newnan; and sisters, Sherri Hughes of Lawrenceville, Ga., and Jo Anne Oliver of Acworth, Ga., and their families. She is also survived by many special friends who encouraged and supported her during her cancer journey, especially employees of Box Car Cafe in Tyrone, Redneck Gourmet in Newnan, Coweta Cancer Support Group, and her son's guardian family, Paul and Corey Mealor. Special thanks go to Dr. Diana Santiago and Dr. Vasily Assikis and their staffs for their constant concern and care, and to the caring staff of Healthfield Hospice and Corinth Road Assisted Living.

A memorial service conducted by Dr. Joel E. Richardson of Central Baptist Church and Debbie Rose, Christian counselor, will be held Thursday, August 13 at 6 p.m. in the Memory Garden at 868 Happy Valley Circle, Newnan.

Donations may be made in Vicki's memory to the Nicholas Lee College Fund at Bank of Coweta, 110 Jefferson Street, Newnan, Georgia 30263.
