“ Sandra Young and I use to deliver to Ms. Viola many years ago from the Feeding our Friends program through Central Baptist Church. I can still remember the 1st time I ever delivered I could not locate the house because I didn't know it was a duplex and I was riding up and down the rode looking for the house no. I was so glad when I located the right place. What a joy to visit her all those years. We'd see her grandchildren in the play pen. Every thing was spotless and she was always busy doing something I am sorry neither of us made it to visit you or to the funeral but I did not want you to think we did not miss her and are sorry for your loss. She was quite a spunky lady when we were visitng with her. May GOD bless each and everyone of you. Your friends in Christ, Susan Green and Sandra Young Central Baptist Church, Newnan

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mother "Janice", Although I never met her I'm sure she was a great woman. My heart goes out to you and your family. My prayers are always with you. She is now in heaven with my mom looking down on us every day.
