“ For all those of you in the family of Wallace Glover, please accept my sympathy. You have all suffered a tremendous loss, but I hope you will all find comfort in knowing he is in a much better and more peaceful place with no suffering. You will all remain in my thoughts and prayers. What a man Wallace was and always will be to all his friends and family! I worked with Wallace at Glover & Davis Law Firm for 7 years, and I remember when I started working there that he really made me feel welcome and such a part of the Glover & Davis family. Wallace will be truly missed and remembered as an incredible man each day by those of us who remain here. I don't think he could have given us all a better gift than the memories we each have of him forever!

“ To the family of Wallace Glover, I considered Wallace to be a good friend and a great guy. Most of my dealings with Wallace were through our business relationship and his title company. He was always to the point, no non-sense, and easy to work with. I trusted his work completely and I admired his approach to his work. I think he enjoyed his family, his work and the community he lived in all his life. I will not forget my friend Wallace Glover.

“ We are so saddened by Wallace's death. My guys, Ernie and Jim, adored Wallace and loved playing golf with him to the very end. What strength he showed all of us! My great memories are going to school with Wallace from 1st grade at Atkinson when our teacher would take us on walks and allow Wallace to run in his yard and back to our group. In 10th grade at Newnan High he sat behind me and I could never hear the teacher due to Wallace's talking. He was a hoot and this family will certainly miss him. God Bless.

“ Kay, Our hearts are truly broken for your loss, yet also filled with admiration as you cared for Wallace deeply whether in sickness or in health. Today, such a wedding vow seems misplaced, but for you two, devotion drew strength from loving each other! He will be remembered as father who adored his children and a husband who loved his wife with his whole heart! Many of us, on the lighter side, will carry fond memories of him, with story after story that affected each of us. Recalling only "yesterday" a training session I received disguised as a golf lesson at the tender age of 12 -- Actually it was a type of book demonstration entitled: "How Not to Get Hustled in 18 Easy Steps", by Wallace Glover! And by using quick learning skills over the years hence, I was able to lose many other times I'm proud to say! Actually it was every time - and Wallace knew this, managing to cleverly arrange opposite teams, then provide that winkish smile! Wallace did lose once, I recall, after failing to separate the two of us onto opposite teams! With that said, I'll forever be thankful for the friend he was to me...His unique personality made him friends to so many! But, his legacy will be how intensely he loved his family, being the great father that he was to his children and helping them to prosper as they grew up. And not to mention his love for you, Kay, being your ultimate soul mate! May God Bless Your Family!

“ Working in the pro shop at the Country Club I had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Glover quite often, and he will be greatly missed. He always had something witty to say and there was rarely a dull moment when he was in the building. Winter at the Club won't be the same without Mr. Glover there playing in freezing temperatures and wearing his funky red hat with the ear flaps. You're all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Matt and I are thinking and praying for your family. Although we didn't get together often enough, I always treasured time with two of my favorite cousins, Wallace and Kay, at our family reunions. Wallace always made me laugh with his cute sense of humor and he always welcomed us with open arms. I can still picture him coming up and talking to me when I was a little girl at the country club. Everyone was jealous that I had such a good looking older cousin that would take time to speak to me. He will be missed and remembered by us and the entire Glover family.

“ Please know that you are all in our prayers and thoughts. Wallace is one of those people that is truly "one of a kind!" He was one of our very first friends when Randy and I moved to Newnan. I will never forget how he helped Randy to transition into Glover and Davis. What a character he was... the town will miss him. It is reassuring to know that he is entertaining his mom and dad in heaven in a wonderful reunion there. we love you, LouAnne
