“ Lamar...I wanted you to know what an appropriate Celebration of Life you had for your dad. Everyone left with a smile on their face. He would have liked that.

“ Lamar and family: My condolences to you and your family. My favorite memories of Starr School include taking trumpet lessons from Mr. Wright to learn enough to play reveille and taps at a summer camp. There was no greater musical challenge for him, but he was willing to take me on. We had a little more success on the piano Mr. Wright was an inspiration to all who knew and loved him. I celebrate his life and thank God for blessing me with the time we had together.

“ Dear Lamar, Your father will be so deeply missed by so many. I'm proud to be among them. I first met your father not long after I moved to Newnan in 1976 as band director at Newnan High. I had only been there a few months when I saw a man I didn't know being led into the band/choral room combo. I didn't know what was going on and choral director Diane Williams was there and I said, "Who is that?" Diane said, "That's Mr. Wright. He tunes the pianos. I looked at her and whispered, "He's blind." She smiled, said "just listen" and walked off. Thirty minutes later I chased Diane down to say, "That piano tuner man was Great! He's a genius. What an ear." Diane smiled and walked off. I never forgot that day and never forgot him. The more I learned about what he had done for so many local musicians the more I respected him. My prayers are with you and the family, Lamar. I feel blessed to have known your father.

“ Lamar and Kenneth, We are so sorry to hear of Mr. W.L.'s passing. Dorthy and W.L. were like other parents to me as I grew up. We enjoyed going to football games in the Corvair, of course with Dorthy driving and not W.L.. Your Dad was an amazing individual. We were always in awe of his musical talent in playing the piano, and of course watching as he would tune the pianos at the church. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of the family. Lamar, you have always been like a brother to both Beth and I. We love you and support you during this difficult time. Beth and Jimmy
