“ Wendy was a very pleasant person and we enjoyed several nice evenings together over dinner with family...or staying at her house as a guest....she will certainly be missed.
Looking forward to paradise when no one will ever say again, "I am sick!"

“ The brightest light I've ever known has gone out in an instant and yet her illumination will shine forever bright in the minds of all who loved her and who were touched by her wondrous, positive and loving spirit. Most importantly, she is a burning flame in the memory of our kind God who will bring her back to us in tears of joy. She is my friend, my sister and my role model for being the best Christian possible. We honor her by doing what is necessary to be there to greet her in Paradise when she returns. Take rest, my friend, and see you soon. We will miss you everyday until then. I send my love and condolences and prayers for comfort to all the family.

“ Dear Dave, Zorena, Todd and Amy,
I want to send you my condolences. So sorry for your loss. Can't wait to welcome Wendy back and see her in perfect health. I was thinking of the time that your family moved to Statesville and how much fun we had with your family. Driving my bright yellow little car to and from your house. I look forward to hearing her laugh and having a good chat with her. I send your family my love and also lots of hugs. Love you all, Robin Baughman Fleming
