“ I remember riding around with Bill and Tony. He was always funny and cracking jokes, and he would go to bat for any of his friends in a second. Rest easy brother you will be missed. My heart and prayers go out to the family.

“ What a wonderful man, husband and father William was. As my neighbor, he touched my heart by the generosity and kindness he showed daily to his family, friends, and to me. My front porch was redone in minutes with this man's handiwork. I always said that the backyard of a home reveals what is important to the home owner, In William's case, it was his family, for the back yard spoke volumes of his love of his children and Emily. His garden outgrew anyone's on the block, and it was filled with toys for the children. I could look out any weekend and see Liam riding the lawn mower with his father. I watched as his daughter toddled away from the house towards the street with her daddy in hot pursuit. He will surely be missed by everyone. With much love and sympathy to Emily and her children,

I kept Bill as a child an infant really. He was a great little fellow. What a man, husband, son, brother and generous human being he grew to be. He told me one time that he had changed in here as he rubbed his chest, right where that big ol heart was. I loved him even more in that moment. He started life with challenges he faced them and I have no doubt when he earned his wings he was a proud, loving, generous and happy man. He contributed that to his beautiful wife and kids. He loved you each with all that was in him, and he had a lot of love from within. The people he loved will last you a lifetime the memories you shared carry in your heart Dailey. His success was a beautiful thing to watch. With Bill .....Corinthians 13:11 comes to mind. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man , I put away all childish things. He accepted his work, wife and family with love, honor and vigor. He wanted the very best of himself and to give his family the best he could. For you Emily A raging pian like fire it burns. We shift from side to side by turns: and it's poor relief we gain. When we change the place but keep the pain. Hold on to the now, the here through which all future plunges to the past. Look at your children you will see Bill everyday. If you ever need anything. Tell Shelby to message me and I'll send you my # I can watch the kids, give you a break or a strong shoulder to lean on. It would be a really good thing for both of us. Your a very strong woman/ person Emily you will do what's best and right. It would so be an honor to get a call from you. I can watch the small one's during the service so you can concentrate on Liam. All you have to do is let me know. For you and Bill I. Would do anything. (Shelby's MIL has my new #). Lynn@ The Welcome STATION (. Well Not anymore). I will do anything to help I mean that.
