“ Unfortunately for us (Zero Odor Team) we only met Bill two years ago (just a moment ago) . . . From day one it was obvious that he was a gentleman with excellent values and integrity. Without Bill's initial support and ongoing advice, our business would not have blossomed the way it has. His leadership, fairness and friendship will always be a legacy that will not be forgotten . . .

Thank You Bill

“ Bill... hard to believe that 24 years ago you hired me as your Plant Mgr. I knew it would be an experience knowing you since the interview consisted of reading my resume and saying, Start Monday. My first day training consisted of introducing me to the plant and saying..go ahead. Just a glimpse into your style. Honest, short and sweet and to the point. We then became friends, thru work and at play...never forget when you drove the golf cart turning sharply on the hill, dumping me to the ground. Still remember the belly laugh you had. You loved life and enjoyed people and taught me a lot. You were a good boss but a better friend. Hired me again at 60 years old. Needless to say, we have a bond...born in the same NY hospital, you were the brother I never had. Until we meet again on the ultimate golf course... you always had the earliest tee time.

“ What a great guy. As a vendor I could not ask for a better customer. One of those special people that was so easy to talk to and even better to listen to.

Knowledgeable, willing to share that, but also interested to know more.

He carried a positive attitude regardless of his situation or his tone of voice.

I always left his office saying what a great call. I want more of my customers to be like him....I would want him as my next door neighbor.

Although I knew him from a business relationship. I am sure that all saw him as a friend... and that all are lucky to have him touch our lives. He will be missed.

“ To my dear friend and gentle giant. You will be dearly missed by all the lives you have touched. Honest, kind, thoughtful and generous. It was a pleasure working with you and enjoying life together. All your employees thought of you as a father figure. Christmas parties grew bigger and better every year because of your leadership and caring heart.

I will miss our time at lunch, after work, playing golf or going to sporting events. I will miss your business knowledge and help growing a dream. Most of all I will miss my friend.

I hope you will continue to smile down at all of us with those blue eyes.

Love you man !

“ *Bill, it was a pleasure to know and work with you. Though our time was short, you were the best boss anyone could hope for. “ Life has led us to share difficult processes that started almost at the same time, but we always said to ourselves “this is only for the strong and courageous” and you overcame by far the meaning of courage.

Thanks to our Heavenly Father it is a challenge that we passed and today you received the main award. Thank you for the time you shared with my family and for all the memories, anecdotes, joys and sorrows that we live. Someday we will meet again and continue to celebrate that eternal life with joy and rejoicing.

To your family, my condolences and may the Lord give you the comfort and strength you need at this time.

“ Bill,
I don't even know where to begin. I feel so honored to have met you! You taught me so much along the way, always made me laugh and had good advice. You were always honest and had my back. I loved that about you. How inspiring your journey was. You never gave up, and even though in so much pain, you still put everyone else before yourself. You made sure people were taken care of. I find comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering and at peace. You will be missed so much and leave a void that can not be filled. Rest easy, friend!
Thanks for all the memories!

“ Having only first met you since one year past, the one word that always comes to mind when I think of you is "Dad". This is not a final goodbye but only a brief parting of friends inasmuch as we shall see each other again.

Until that time: May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you. May the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and grant you eternal peace.

Save me a seat at the ball game! I'll be along shortly.
