“ Losing a family member is never easy but Pam and her family can rest easily knowing her father lived a good and full life. He was such a kind and friendly person and must have been a wonderful father and grandfather. I know there are many fond memories to carry all of the family over the days to come. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. cookie mcclure

“ To Bill, Pam, and Deb and their families: I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your father. He was a very special person who was a blessing to all those who knew him. I was particularly blessed throughout my life to have him as my Godfather, as he inspired me to build a deep and honest relationship with my Lord and Savior Jesus. May the Lord cover you with His grace and love during this very difficult time. With love and prayers, Randall
