“ I never got to know Billy really well but I appreciate all the love and support that he showed to Shirley, my nieces and nephew and to their children. I'm sorry he left a void in your lives and hope that you fill that void with lots of happy and loving memories. Love and hugs from Aunt Glady ❤️

“ I cannot even explain how my heart hurts knowing Billy is no longer with us. I can close my eyes and see him with a beer bottle on his head patiently waiting for a new one. He used to teach me pool. And he always made me laugh. My love and support are with you all at this difficult time. Rest Easy Billy. You are one of a kind

“ My Pop-Pop was the first person to ever show me how to shoot a gun. He put a .45 in my hand, told me to point and shoot. That's only one of many amazing things he taught me how to do. I remember shooting pool for the first time in the basement while he showed me and Zach how to hold the cue correctly. And how he sat on the porch laughing as my mother was nervous watching me mow the grass for the first time on the old john deer. He was the toughest man I ever met and did nothing but love his family. Rest easy Pop-Pop. We love you man.

Shirley Halberst

Thank you Kai. Pop pop loved teaching all of you something that he enjoyed and from where he sits he is telling you that he loves you too.

“ When Bill turned 17 or 18 I helped him get his drivers license. While we were out practicing I suggested that he head into the Exton, Pa mall and without even hitting the brakes he made a left turn. It felt like the car was going to flip right over. It leaned really hard and made a loud screech None-the-less we made it into the parking lot with only a few concerns from the public. Eventually Bill got his license.
