

William Chester Huckabee

February 5, 1963 - December 20, 2022

William Chester "Billy" Huckabee, age 59, of Newnan, Ga passed away on December 20, 2022. He was born in Charleston, SC on February 5, 1963, to the late Ernest Huckabee and Juanita Mitchum.

He loved his family and the many friends he considered family, Billy will be missed by all who knew him. Billy loved to tell stories and make everyone laugh, he could make friends with anyone he spoke to, some say Billy had his own language he spoke which made him all the more hysterical. Billy loved racing go-karts with his son Chris and Wife Kathy, he enjoyed the traveling and the competition along with the joy it brought as a family pass time. He was a gun and antique collector who loved watching westerns and antique auctions. He loved taking rides on his Harley, playing his guitar and spending time with friends and family. He was a very intelligent man who owned and ran a successful plumbing and HVAC company along side his brother Wayne. He held Master degrees in plumbing and HVAC.

Billy is survived by his loving wife of 42 years, Kathy Huckabee; son, Chris Huckabee; grandchildren, Leonardo Huckabee and Gideon Huckabee; brother, Wayne Huckabee; sister, Debra Moeckel; and brother-in-law, Jeff Moeckel.

The family will have a celebration of life at a later date.
