“ At a dinner table on a cruise in March 1993 this gent was offering up hilarious Cajun jokes in a genuine southern drawl. We soon learned of recent history and became determined to establish a friendship, one which has endured over thirty years of laughter and well-taught golf lessons.

Barbara and family, we share in your loss yet know that the same inspiration and love for life that you've shown us shall, down the road, bring new strength to you. Condolences for now, love in friendship forever. Rest in peace, good friend.

“ My condolences to the Meagher family for the loss of Bill. I was a classmate of Bill's in the infamous Delta class of 09/12/1969. I remember Bill for his great sense of humor and wonderful demeanor. He would kid me about being Navy and I would return the banter about his being Air Force. It was a fun time and gentlemen like Bill helped to build and make what a great airline Delta is today. RIP Bill.
