“ To the family of Mr. Poe, our church family wishes to express our deepest sympathy to you. We have been visiting all of the residence of Savannah Court on the last Thursday of the month for over a year. We enjoyed Bill, and his wonderful singing voice. He was always such a pleasant person. He would enjoy our visits and would blow kisses to all of the women when we were getting ready to leave. We were all shocked by the news. Please let us know if we can do anything for the family. Our prayers are with you during this time of loss. Remember to trust in God for your strength. Jimmy Walker, Church Elder
