“ Oh MY,I sit here and think about the first time I met Mr.Bill and his wife.I was about 15 working for Shoney's and She wanted some potatoe soup and we did not make it that day.Mr.Bill came up to me and said if thats what she wants she's gonna get it.Thats what I did was make it.Thru the years I went to work for Farmers Furniture and yes she finally got on him and said leave her along buy that loveseat.Both were wonderful people he will truely be missed by me.It just seems like maybe 2 months ago he came and saw me.I don't understand why good people have to go but I will say this I will look forward to seeing both of them.I can also say he talked about his kids all the time.What a wonderful person.Diane

“ I'm very sorry to read about Mr. Bill's passing. As I told Wayne when I talked to him earlier this evening, I learned about this sad event when I got home this afternoon and was looking at the Newnan Times-Herald's website and then I just happened to go over to McKoon's website. It had been several years since I had seen Mr. Bill. However, from time-to-time when I passed his house and it was a reasonable hour, I would blow my truck's air horn just to say hi. I would have stopped and paid him a visit, but it would have been next to impossible to park an 18-wheeler in his yard. I remember playing softball with him, Mr. Pete Moore, Mr. James Yarbrough, and Mr. Charlie Williams during my teenage years. We all had some good time during that time. Even though, he had a bad habit of filling off too many softballs, he was a good player and an individual to look up to. I've been gone from Moreland for over 40 years, but I still remember him and how he helped out the young boys growing up there. It's a time of sadness, but you must reflect on the many blessed memories and good times ya'll had together and continue with your lives. He would want it that way. May the good Lord be with each and everyone of you during this time of sorrow and strengthen you. You'll be my prayers.
