“ Billy was a fine man, a hard worker. Working with him at Bonnell for many years, he was one of the few who could be counted on to follow through on the task. I spoke with him several times during his illness and he was always positive. Rip and I are very sorry for your loss. Our prayers will be with you as they have been for Billy during his illness. Billy assured me he knew the Lord, had accepted Him as Lord and Savior of his life, and whatever God's plan was he knew he would be ok. I pray the fact he is with our Lord provides some comfort. God bless you all.
