“ I love you Aunt Mae & I know you are up there at the Flea Market shopping with Janice because we all love bargains. Like you always loved to do. & Heaven holds the best bargains, the lord, and free love. The world has lost a precious soul. May your kind love be with your family all the days of their lives. The streets here are nothing like the streets of gold. God has had his victory over satans disease and has brought his angel home. We love you all.

“ If tears could build a stairway, And memories a lane, I'd walk right up to Heaven And bring you home again. "Aunt Maes" memory is now a treasure. Her life itself was a sweet story told by God. I hope that as each of you look back on your memories of precious Mae, that they are able to comfort you through each tomorrow. We love you all & will dearly miss "Aunt Mae". God be with everyone of you.
