

Wyatt James Gentry

October 31, 1994 - June 25, 2009

On June 28, 2009 the family and friends of Wyatt James Gentry will gather at Royal Baptist Church at 2:00 PM to thank God for his life. Wyatt joined his Lord in heaven on June 25, 2009. On October 31, 1994, Wyatt was born in Columbus, Georgia. He was the son of Samuel G. and Renee Christeen Synnott Gentry. In his brief 14 years, every day was important to Wyatt - for every day was one of new opportunities. Being a person of great creativity, he was active in the Newnan Community Theatre and Joyful Praise Choir. Music was a passion for Wyatt and he spent hours on the guitar and interpreted the influences of musicians like John Mayer, Matthew West, One Republic, Kutless and other Christian musicians. Since the age of 12, Wyatt had been a presence on the soccer fields as a referee. In addition to his parents, Wyatt is survived by his sister, Kelsey Brooke Gentry and his brother Levi Clinton Gentry. His grandparents are James Stephen and Wanda Sue Gentry; Kenneth and Rowena Synnott. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street where the family will receive friends on Saturday. Following the funeral on Sunday, burial will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com.

“ Dear Gentry Family, I am so very sorry for your great loss. I know it will be hard. My grandfather was killed and it felt like I would never get over it. But i did. And i hope and pray that You and your family will be ok throughtout this very hard time. I did know Wyatt but not that well. I knew his friends Morgan Garder and Bethany Lipscomb. Morgan talked non-stop about what a great guy he was. I learned he was sweet, kind, caring, and a heck of a singer. My prayers are with you Gentry Family. "May God Bless"

“ Renee, Sam, Levi and Kelsey, I just heard about Wyatt and wanted you to know that your grief is shared. I still remember him as the little guy running up and down the touchline with a flag in his hand behind the AR, often doing a better job than the official. I knew then that he would be a winner in life and a joy to everyone he touched. Reading about him online and reading the tributes from his friends, I can see that I was right. With the circumstances that my son was in a year or so ago, circumstances that he will again be facing at the end of this year; I have given a lot of thought to the deaths of young people. JB and his men know what they are getting into and his loved ones can prepare somewhat for whatever may happen. The suddenness with which Wyatt was lost is tragic. I am so very sorry. Your beliefs and faith are a comfort to you, I am sure, as are Levi and Kelsey. Take care, my friends, stay strong and remember that little boy and the young man he grew into will live in our thoughts and memories forever. Marty

“ Dear Sam, Renee, Levi & Kelsey, We wish to express our deepest sympathies for the loss of your son/brother. Words can never express the magnitude of emotions that you must feel at this time. Though I have not seen Wyatt since he was an infant, I know your family is one filled with love and a belief in God that you passed on to Wyatt. May you find comfort in God and the truly precious memories that you have of Wyatt. You are in our prayers.

“ To the Gentry Family: We were so very shocked and saddened to hear of Wyatt's sudden passing. We just found out last night from the Theatre website... Our daughter Cristina was in "Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing" at Newnan Theatre with him, and we remember what a talented actor and nice person he was. He will be greatly missed. Please know our prayers are with you all at this very difficult time. Sincerely, Susie, José, Cristina and Diego Couvillion.

“ Wyatt was a great guy to everyone in the JoyfullPraise homeschool Choir. He always showed love and joy to the K through 6 Choir. He was always a very competitive and good sport to play with. I will still remember him bringing his football to Choir and waiting for him to come and join our fellowship in sports and activity. We all loved him very much. One thing was for certain, he could always make friends with his smile. He was by far the best actor in Choir and had a really talented voice. It could carry far off into the church sanctuary past the pew. I will forever and deeply miss him. I'm so sorry for this tragedy. - Bryan Clay

“ Dear Sam, Renee, Levi and Kelsey, My heart goes out to each of you in the loss of Wyatt. I've been praying for you ever since I heard the news and I will continue to pray. May you feel God's arms enfolding you, His strength uplifting you and may you have His peace that surpasses any understanding of this most difficult situation. I wish I could be there to support you at this time, I know all of you and your church family are hurting right now. Since I can't be there, I can pray and I will. “ Sam, Renee, Levi, and Kelsey, My heart is broken for each of you. I cannot even begin to imagine the pain and emptiness that each of you are feeling. Your family has always been so very close to my heart, and I love each of you dearly. I pray that the Lord gives you His peace, grace, rest, hope, comfort, and strength. May He wrap His loving arms around you and sustain each of you. Nothing any of us can say or do will change what you are going through, but we can all be here to walk with you during this very dark and sad time. Rejoicing in the knowledge that Wyatt is in the presence of our Lord, and we will see him again, yet mourning with all of you in this very tragic loss. I love you guys. “ The entire Gentry famiy, I am in complete shock at the Death of Wyatt. I know he is in Heaven playing guitar, leading the angels in worship. All that gets me through this tragedy is thinking of the good times with him. He was an amazing person and will continue to be.

“ Wyatt and I worked together in several shows and I can think of no one who shined as brightly as he did. He had so much energy and passion for theatre. It is impossible to believe that this could happen to anyone, especially in our own community. He will be greatly missed, but always remembered. And he will always live on in our memories and our hearts. To Kelsey, Renee, Sam, and Levi: Wyatt will always be with you, no matter where you are or what you are doing. Although his body is no longer here, his spirit, and his music, will live on forever.

“ We would like to wish you our deepest sympathies on the passing of your son, and brother, Wyatt. Wyatt and Jordan worked on several plays at the NCTC, and shared their great love of theater. We will always remember their wonderful "dog" song from "How to Eat Like a Child". They worked very hard together to make that song one of the best numbers of the show. We will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers and remember all of the wonderful contributions Wyatt has made to the community.

“ We've all lost a dear, dear friend. Though only 14 he was a good friend to people of all ages. Wyatt made a huge impression on my life, and a piece of him will live on through me and everyone else who knew him. I watched him nail an audition this past Tuesday night at the community theatre, and I take comfort knowing that Wyatt is now performing on God's big stage. Sam, Renee, Levi and Kelsey--Thank you for letting Wyatt be a part of my life. Knowing him has made me a better person. Love, Bree

“ Sam, Renee, Levi, and Kelsey, My heart breaks for your family. I cannot imagine how unbearable your pain must be. Wyatt was truly a light to all those who were lucky enough to have known him. And it is obvious that he touched so many lives. Your family is being lifted up by scores of people both known and unknown. You are enveloped in the love of Christ by the body of Christ. And we know that every where we go, Christ has gone before us. Through Christ the darkness will not be dark and the night will shine like the day. We see things so dimly now and cannot understand the reason for this tragedy but we know that we have hope today through Jesus Christ. And this hope endures even the most unbearable of conditions. Psalm 33:20-22 says "We wait in hope for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name. May your unfailing love rest upon us, O Lord, even as we put our hope in you." I pray that through it all you will continue to put your hope in the Lord and let Him carry you. I love you all and will be praying daily for your comfort and strength.

“ Dear Gentry Family, I found out about your loss through Eagles Nest, and I wish to express my deepest sympathy. I pray that the Lord will slip his arm a little tighter around you and hold you even closer during this difficult time. I trust that Wyatt is singing with the a host of heavenly angels right now. May the Lord bless your family.
